We are welcoming summer with "wine on the wild side"! The decor will be exotic but the food and wine will be familiar, as Club member Elizabeth Hill presents wines from her family vineyard and winery. The Hill family produces locally grown wine from the Texas High Plains, and has grown wine grapes since 2002 on land farmed by the family for five generations, 10 miles west of Levelland. Burklee Hill wines have won numerous gold medals and class championships in international wine competitions.

From the President

Time passes quickly, and in 2021-22, as the second hand ticked away on the clock, we were reminded of the importance of savoring what truly matters. Thank you to Sue St. Clair and the 2021-22 Board of Directors for reminding us to cherish every moment as we had "The Time of Our Lives" at the Lubbock Women's Club this year. Sue led with us with her class, creativity, and style, and we are all grateful for her leadership as we made special memories that will last us a lifetime.

At LWC, we have the best General Manager that any organization could ask for in Tricia Duncan. She wears so many different hats, and we can always depend on her to make sure that we have all that we need. Tricia puts in long hours, working both nights and weekends during certain months, and she does it with a willing heart and never complains. LWC also has an amazing staff, and we are blessed to have each and every one of them...they are the BEST.

June is the time for new beginnings at the Lubbock Women's Club, and I am so excited about the new Board of Directors and for their dedication and love for this Club. Some of these incoming ladies have been on the board before, and for some, it will be their first time. I want to thank these amazing women in advance for their time and commitment; it will be worth every minute. Without a doubt, I know that they will serve LWC with "kindness" and devotion and make you proud.

Kindness is defined as "the act of being caring or warm in spirit." In an expression to convey the importance of kindness, Princess Diana once eloquently stated, "Carry out a random act of kindness, with no expectation of reward, safe in the knowledge that one day someone might do the same for you." This attribute exemplifies the Lubbock Women's Club, and that puts a smile on my face and joy in my heart. It is one of the many reasons that I am both honored and grateful to serve as your president for 2022-2023. In the coming year, may we continue to show one another and our community that the best accessory a woman can ever wear is "kindness." In a world that is constantly changing, where new trends come and go, and styles rarely stay the same, the act of "kindness" will never go out of style. In the year ahead, I am grateful that we all will be able to continue making memories and caring about one another in an organization where "Kindness is Always Fashionable."

"For attractive lips, speak words of kindness." Audrey Hepburn

Tricia's Corner...

The summer season begins June 21st. but summer is already here in Texas! When there are no scheduled activities, office hours will be 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. All reservations for summer activities will follow the standard Women's Club policy. Reservations must be made or canceled by noon of the preceding business day.

The many exciting programs and events offered at the LWC will NOT slow down during the summer months! This summer, there will be something for everyone, from enlightening and creative roundtables to our always popular and entertaining wine dinners.

From the JWC Corner...

It is a true honor to serve as the 2022-23 Junior Women's Club President, following an outstanding president, Christine Covington, whom I know have big shoes to fill. Thank you, Christine, for your two-year dedication as the JWC president; your loyalty and dedication are unmatched.

As I journey into this new role, I am reminded of connection and friendship and why I joined The Lubbock Women's Club years ago.

2022 is a year that I have adopted the lifestyle of being present, connected, and available to journey through life with my family (husband Lance and 7-year-old daughter, Lillian), friends in my dinner circle, friends in my neighborhood, and of course friends in The Lubbock Women's Club. The true value of friendship connects us, supports us, spends time with us, laughs with us, and through us, we share a healthy, fun, and joyful life. I can't think of a better theme for this year than,

A sweet friendship refreshes the soul.

—Proverbs 27.9

I am delighted to begin a year of sweet friendships, and it's my goal that each interaction refreshes our souls as women and friends. I am honored to partner with The Lubbock Women's Club's incoming president, Barbara Webb, who I know will be a great leader for our club and provide wisdom and strong leadership to the Juniors. Her theme this year is Kindness is Always Fashionable. I believe her goal together coupled with the power of how friendship can refresh the soul, will be a year for the books.

Speaking of friends, I would like to thank Ashley Hougland and Katie Burnes for hosting our beautiful new member soiree last month. Because of their hosting magic and the juniors' ability to fill a room with beautiful women, we are proud to announce that 14 new JWC memberships blossomed from just one evening of friendship.

New members, we welcome you! We hope you can join us this summer as we host our one summer event, our 2nd Annual Cosmo Club Pool Party, in July. Please check your email or text for an invite coming soon.

I am also pleased to announce that we had a spectacular 2022-23 Board Retreat last month, and y'all hang on to your hats or wine glasses; we have a stellar year planned. We have a strong board of past presidents mixed with fresh new faces that planned a calendar year that is sure to please. Check your mail, email, texts or however you receive communication, because you won't want to miss out on any of our upcoming events.

As your incoming president, it is a true pleasure to serve alongside this tremendous JWC board. May you feel as refreshed as I do,

Abie

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE! Garage Sale Celebration and Thank You

Truly Grateful for you.

Now that the LWC Garage Sale is behind us, it is time to celebrate and thank everyone who contributed to its success. Members of the LWC and JWC stepped up and did everything that was asked of them. Thousands of items were donated, countless hours were spent in preparation, working before, during and after the sale. Many husbands, friends, and relatives jumped in to help where help was needed. Everyone had time to have fun with old friends, get to know new members, and make new friends. A special thank you to our club president, Sue St. Clair, for her expert guidance, to Maybelle Kern for providing hospitality in her "tent", Bob and Vicky Tate for mapping and measuring the spaces for departments, and co-chairs Leslie Walker and Paula Kelly for coordinating all the details involved in putting the preview night and garage sale together.

We also want to thank the community members without whose help we could not have had such a successful sale. Special thanks go to City Bank for underwriting this event, Michael Postar of Affordable Storage for providing two storage units, Steve and Kristi Edwards of Plaza Cleaners, Chris James and Robert Taylor of United Supermarkets, Brenda Becknell, Robin and Don Walker for providing additional clothes racks and Jennifer Wallace and the staff of the fairgrounds for all their help both during setup and the garage sale. It takes a village!!!

Thank you all so much for all the hard work and countless hours spent on this project.
