Presidents' Day Luncheon

Monday, May 9, 2022, 12:00 noon, $18
Reservations by Friday, May 6, 12:00 noon

Come enjoy a wonderful luncheon as we recognize and honor our current Lubbock Women's Club President, Sue St. Clair and all the other ladies who have served as Club President over the past several years. This will be a very sweet time of remembrance for all who attend.

Chairman: Sherry Blankenship

Committee: Debra Bartos, Ruth Ann Bridges, Kathy Britton, Kaye Greer, Jeanne Holley, Norma Landis, Mitzi Mulkey, Vicki Price, Debbie Ramsey, Vicky Tate

FROM THE PRESIDENT

"The Time of Our Lives"

For 279 episodes from 1967-1978, Carol Burnett delighted the United States with a variety/sketch comedy television show. At the end of each performance, she sang this song:

*"I'm so glad we had this time together,
Just to have a laugh or sing a song.
Seems we just get started and before you know it,
Comes the time we have to say, 'so long'."*

It is May, and as president, my year is ending. I am so thankful we've had this time together. Fortunately, I was not asked to sing a song, but I have surely had many laughs. Don't worry, I will continue to laugh with you and our beloved LWC members throughout this month and beyond.

*"There's a time you put aside for dreaming,
And a time for things you have to do.
But the time I like the best is any evening,
I can spend a moment here with you."*

Barbara Webb will be a wonderful leader who will guide you through the next year with efficiency and dignity. The 2022-23 Officers and Board of Directors have proven to be smart, talented leaders who are committed to our Club. With Tricia Duncan and her very able staff, the LWC continues to inspire, inform, and serve the members and community. "Thank you" to all.

Before the end of May, we will be finishing up our "It's Never Too Late!" Spring Garage Sale. To Leslie Walker, Paula Shields, and the legions of workers that lead and execute this massive event, we also extend to you our "Thank you" for your efforts!

But WAIT! There's more! Our j.hoffman's style show will tickle our sense of style to make us "Summer Ready." The Presidents' Day Luncheon will honor all past presidents who have led our Club through the years. For the Spring Coffee, please invite your friends and encourage them to join our illustrious group! There are only two roundtable luncheons in May, but both promise to be enlightening: "Digging Up the Past: Archaeological Discoveries that Bring the Story of Israel to Life" by Dr. Jesse Long and "Taking Care of Your Best Friends – Your Pets" by Dr. Eric Cunningham. Recruit a few friends to come play games on the First or Third Mondays!

*"When the time comes and I'm feeling lonely,
And I'm feeling ohhhhh so blue,
I just sit back and think of you,
And the happiness still comes through."*

*"That's why I'm glad we had this time together,
Cause it makes me feel that I belong.
Seems we just got started and before you know it,
Guess it's time for me to say, 'so long'."*

Love and best wishes, Sue St. Clair

It's time to celebrate with friends!
Congratulations, Sue, on your presidency!

Fondly, Bridge Friends

From the JWC Corner..

Well friends, it doesn't seem possible, but the time has come for the last month of our 2021-2022 JWC year and unfortunately, the last month of my presidency. Although my time in this role did not begin normally, I have loved being JWC President of this historic Club. I want to thank the LWC and JWC members and the Lubbock Women's Club staff for their patience, kindness, and support during the last two years. I also want to thank my tireless board for their leadership and guidance in the sometimes- challenging times. We have survived and dare I say, flourished?

But don't hang up your party shoes yet! We did save some of the best events of the year for May:

May 4 – Bring Your Own Buddy Soirée: Join old and new friends for JWC's annual membership event. Prize-drawing for each member who brings a potential member. Application fees will be waived for this night.

May 12 – Garden Luncheon: Our speaker will be John Wallis, Past President of the Lubbock Memorial Arboretum. Learn about their upcoming events and amazing rose gardens at the 93-acre Arboretum.

May 26 – JWC Cosmopolitan Club – "Time with Friends." They say time with friends is time well spent. Come enjoy one last glass of wine with your JWC friends before summer! This event is hosted by Natalie Inderman and Kendra Lansdell.

Friends, it has been a pleasure to serve you. It's not "goodbye" but "see you later" at the next Club event. Below is my final farewell song lyrics from King George Strait!

*"I ain't here for a long time, I'm here for a good time.
So bring on the sunshine, to hell with the red wine, pour me some moonshine.
When I'm gone, put it in stone: 'He left nothing behind.'
I ain't here for a long time, I'm here for a good time."*

Christine

Digging Up the Past: Archaeological Discoveries that Bring the Story of Israel to Life

Dr. Jesse Long, Professor of Old Testament and Archaeology
Lubbock Christian University

Tuesday, May 10, 2022, 12:00 noon, $18
Reservations by Monday, May 9, 12:00 noon

Archaeological excavations at sites like Hazor, Shechem, Dan, and Lachish bring to the surface the history of Israel through discoveries that reflect important periods from the past. With these discoveries, well-known characters like Joshua, David, Jeroboam, and Hezekiah emerge from dust to life, as material remains and artifacts retell their stories once more.

If you have not been to Israel, this will make you want to pack your bag! If you have, it will deepen your understanding! Dr. Long is a world-renowned archeologist and a personality you will want to know. His informative presentation will answer questions!

Chairman: Emily Lemley Committee: Paula Hines, Judy Rostad, Nanette Schumacher, Jo Anne Smith, Caren Watkins

Taking Care of Your Best Friends – Your Pets

Dr. Eric Cunningham, DVM; Live Oak Animal Hospital

Monday, May 23, 2022, 12:00 noon, $18
Reservations by Friday, May 20, 12:00 noon

Your pet's health is just as important as yours; and caring for your pet means taking him to the vet for necessary checkups. But veterinary medicine, like other industries, is changing with advancements in technology and new knowledge. Issues include increased obesity, niche pets (like geckos and snakes), pet insurance, and more specialty services. Dealing with all of this is Lubbock's own Eric Cunningham, who balances his vet practice with beer-making (Two Docs) and becoming a part-owner in Lubbock's new soccer franchise, The Lubbock Matadors. Come discover new trends in taking care of our four-legged friends ... and new enterprises in our hometown.

Chairman: Pam Tipton Committee: Jeanne Holley, Norma Landis, Sheri Phillips, Nancy Wood

If you have special dietary requirements (dairy-free, gluten-free, vegan, etc.), the LWC chef can prepare a meal for you! Please notify Michelle at (806) 763-6448 no later than 24 hours prior to each luncheon.
